and be able to create authentic assessments

Know and Do

Why do we give student assignments?

To measure learning, right?

Thank you, Captain Obvious.

Captain Obvious is a trademark of hotels.com

A pair of hands is shown holding a metal caliper horizontally. The word "performance" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font across the top beam of the caliper. The hands are positioned on either side of the caliper, with fingers gripping the ends. The background is plain white.

How do we ensure quality?

- Quality of understanding
- Quality of performance/product

Ask:

Does the assessment provide evidence that enables us to arrive at accurate conclusions about what students have learned?

How do we ensure validity?

- Validity says the assessment measures what it says it does.

Ask:

- Could the task be performed well without understanding?
- Could the task be performed poorly in spite of understanding?

What do you want to change?

On Change.org, people everywhere are starting campaigns, creating petitions, and working with decision-makers to drive solutions. Study all the world what you want to change in 3-4 lines of text.

¿Qué quieres cambiar en el mundo? Escribe en 3-4 líneas de texto.

Write about what you want to change.

- Keep your message short and to the point
- Focus on what you want to change
- Communicate your passion

Try not to adjust the text box just as it is designed to be the ideal size for the space to write through a chunk of text.

ESPE: Escribe sobre qué quieres cambiar. Concéntrate en lo más importante. Hazlo corto y al pie.

What has to happen first?

Change only happens through awareness to create the change they want to see. What should happen first? Write in 3-4 lines of text.

¿Qué tiene que pasar primero para que ocurra el cambio que quieres? Escribe en 3-4 líneas de texto.

¿Cuántas veces puedes tomar la decisión de escribir la propuesta.

In need of some advice and have a few questions. I just got my masters degree in ID this summer and as I'm applying I'm looking into different roles/job titles I can apply to. My biggest motivator in getting my ID degree was working remotely. Those who have ID degrees, what kind of courses do you teach? and What kind of virtual work do you do if not teaching online? Even if it's not virtual, what different job titles should I be looking for? I know ID is so broad and carry different job titles. I'm currently an adjunct for remedial reading and college success courses. I also do some course design for a university as a contractor. Thanks in advance, you guys are great!

Rubrics

“Rubrics make assessing student work quick and efficient, and they help teachers justify [the] grades that they assign to students. At their very best, rubrics are also teaching tools that support student learning and the development of sophisticated thinking skills. When used correctly, they serve the purposes of learning as well as of evaluation and accountability.”

Andrade, H.G. (2000). Using rubrics to promote thinking and learning. Educational Leadership, 57(5). p. 13-18
